Heritage Day 2016 - Distinctive Destinations: Experience Historic Places

Thank You to All who participated in our 2016 Ottawa Heritage Day event at City Hall - especially with it taking place during a history making, record breaking snow fall and a fire alarm triggered by flooding in the Heritage building!

Despite those on theme challenges, the event was a great success with many engaging member exhibits and displays, including a special artefacts area presented by the City of Ottawa Museums and popular heritage hockey photo booth from the City of Ottawa Archives. We were pleased to have new members participating, such as the Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg Nation, Ottawa Inuit Children's Centre, Jane's Walk, Doors of Ottawa and the new Carleton University library 'Ottawa Resource Room'.

And, to have a good representation from City Council together with Mayor Watson presenting the Heritage Day proclamation to the Beechwood Cemetery Foundation represented by their Chair Emeritus Grete Hale, Chair General (ret'd) Maurice Baril and President and Executive Director Roger Boulton.

Also recognized was our Board member Hagit Hadaya, receiving the Gordon Cullingham Award presented by Heritage Ottawa; and the Ottawa Regional Heritage Fair showcased 14 year old Alexander Moss and his project which garnered him the 2015 City of Ottawa Local History Award.

CHOO|COPO created a special slide show and quiz showcasing images of many of our member offerings related to this year's 'heritage tourism' theme. Quiz participants had a chance to win one of 16 great door prizes generously contributed by our members and supporters. And all enjoyed pancakes and hot drinks served up by Vanier Museopark and our delightful entertainers Gabrielle Malis and Yvon Neveu.

The event garnered media coverage through CBC TV, Metroland Media and New Edinburgh News. Special thanks to our great MC Daniel Richer, many costumed characters and team of volunteers for helping to make the day such a success!

Fête du patrimoine 2016 - Destinations ravissantes: Découvrez des lieux historiques

Merci à tous ceux qui ont participé à notre événement de la Fête du patrimoine d'Ottawa 2016, à l'hôtel de ville - en particulier parce qu'il a eu lieu durant une chute de neige record qui est entrée dans les annales historiques, et une alarme d'incendie déclenchée par des inondations dans le bâtiment patrimonial!

Malgré ces défis sur le thème, l'événement fut un grand succès avec de nombreuses expositions et des présentations engageantes de la part de nos membres. Il y avait également une zone d'objets spéciaux présentés par les musées de la Ville d'Ottawa et un stand très populaire de photos du patrimoine du hockey provenant des Archives de la Ville d'Ottawa. Nous étions ravis d'avoir la participation de nouveaux membres comme la Nation Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg, Ottawa Inuit Children's Centre, la Promenade de Jane, Portes d'Ottawa et la nouvelle « Salle de ressources pour Ottawa » de la bibliothèque de l'Université Carleton.

Nous étions aussi heureux d'avoir une bonne représentation du Conseil municipal avec le maire Watson qui a présenté la Proclamation de la Fête du patrimoine à la Fondation du Cimetière de Beechwood en présence de sa présidente émérite Grete Hale, de son président général (à la retraite) Maurice Baril et de son président et directeur général Roger Boulton.

Nous avons également reconnu notre membre du conseil d'administration Hagit Hadaya, qui a reçu le Prix Gordon Cullingham présenté par Patrimoine Ottawa; et la Fête régionale du patrimoine d'Ottawa a présenté Alexander Moss, âgé de 14 ans, et son projet qui lui a valu le Prix « histoire locale » de la Ville d'Ottawa 2015.

CHOO|COPO avait créé un diaporama spécial et un jeu-questionnaire qui représentaient en images les offrandes de nos membres, liées au « tourisme patrimonial », le thème de cette année. Les participants au Jeu-questionnaire ont eu la chance de gagner l'un des 16 grands prix généreusement offerts par nos membres et sympathisants. Ils ont aussi tous apprécié des crêpes et des boissons chaudes servies par Muséoparc Vanier, ainsi que nos merveilleux artistes, Gabrielle Malis et Yvon Neveu.

L'événement a bénéficié d'une couverture médiatique grâce à la chaîne de télévision CBC/Radio-Canada, Metroland Media et New Edinburgh News. Un grand merci à notre merveilleux MC Daniel Richer, aux nombreux personnages costumés et à l'équipe de bénévoles dont les efforts ont fait de cette journée un tel succès!

Le Conseil des organismes du patrimoine d'Ottawa

Application Deadline: Thursday, March 24, 2016, 4 pm EST

In partnership with Ottawa 2017 and its lead partner, CIBC, CHOO|COPO is pleased to be stewarding this grant program together with the AOE Arts Council and Ottawa Arts Council, announced at a packed media launch event at the Orange Gallery (formerly a bank for CN Rail). A painted 'cheque' for $250,000 was 'withdrawn' from the old vault and presented - making for some great media opps with our Executive Directors, Ottawa 2017 Bureau reps including Mayor Watson, Councillors Fleury, Cloutier and Qaqish and Guy Laflamme, as well as MPP Yasir Naqvi and CIBC Director, Commercial Banking, Marsha Woodgate.

Program At-A-Glance

- A total of $250,000 in program funding is available
- Projects will be funded at a minimum of $5,000 and maximum of $25,000 each
- Projects should be a new or enhanced activity for 2017
- All project activities must take place within the City of Ottawa and occur between January 1 and December 31, 2017
- Projects should be open and accessible to the general public
- Application deadline: Thursday, March 24, 2016, 4 p.m. EST

This is a new, one time funding opportunity available to eligible groups in Ottawa's bilingual and culturally diverse arts, culture and heritage sectors for projects in Ottawa during 2017 celebrating Canada's sesquicentennial. All partners very much look forward to seeing what exciting proposals come forward from the diverse and dynamic arts, culture and heritage sector! The hope is especially to see some cross-sector activities (e.g., professional arts and heritage workers collaborating) and engagement of youth as well as indigenous peoples.

Don't Miss this One Time Opportunity to Showcase Ottawa's Arts, Culture and Heritage!

Ignite 150 Program

Ottawa 2017 has also launched its Ignite 150 grant program. "The search is on to find unique, crazy, spectacular and ephemeral events that need to take place in surprising and unusual locations across Ottawa in 2017. Show us what you've got!"

Program At-A-Glance:

- A total budget of $250,000 is available

- Projects will be funded at a minimum of $5,000 and maximum of $25,000 each
- Events could be ticketed with applicable admission fees sold through Ottawa 2017's distribution network
- All activities must take place within the City of Ottawa, and should showcase non-traditional venues, enhancing the element of surprise for participants
- Events should be turn-key and must occur between January 1, 2017 and December 31, 2017
- Projects should be bold, creative, innovative and engaging, providing a unique emotional experience for participants
- Application deadline: Thursday, April 28, 2016 @ 4 p.m. EST

For more information:

<http://www.ottawa2017.ca/get-involved/ignite-150/>

Civic Events Program

And, changes have been made to the City of Ottawa-Ottawa 2017 expanded Civic Events Program such that events may now take place at any time during 2017, not just on statutory holidays.

Le Programme d'investissement des arts, de la culture et du patrimoine d'Ottawa 2017

En partenariat avec Ottawa 2017 et son partenaire principal, CIBC, CHOO|COPO est heureux d'être l'intendant de ce programme de subventions en collaboration avec le Conseil des arts AOE et le Conseil des arts d'Ottawa, annoncé lors d'un événement de lancement médiatique bondé de monde, à la Galerie Orange (anciennement une banque des chemins de fer CN). Un « chèque » peint de 250.000 $ a été « retiré » de l'ancienne chambre forte, et présenté - offrant des opportunités médiatiques avec nos directeurs généraux, les représentants du Bureau d'Ottawa 2017, dont le maire Watson, les conseillers Fleury, Cloutier et Qaqish et Guy Laflamme, ainsi que le député provincial Yasir Naqvi et la directrice de la banque commerciale de CIBC, Marsha Woodgate.

Aperçu Du Programme

- Au total, un budget de 250 000 $ est consacré au financement des projets
- Chaque projet financé recevra un montant oscillant entre 5 000 $ (minimum) et 25 000 $ (maximum)

- Les projets doivent représenter une activité ou mise à jour pour 2017
- Toutes les activités doivent se dérouler sur le territoire de la ville d'Ottawa et avoir lieu entre le 1^{er} janvier 2017 et le 31 décembre
- Toutes les projets doivent être ouverts et accessibles au grand public
- Date limite de soumission des candidatures : le jeudi 24 mars 2016 à 16 h (HNE)

Ce programme offre une nouvelle possibilité de financement unique aux groupes admissibles œuvrant dans les secteurs artistiques, culturels et patrimoniaux bilingues et culturellement diversifiés d'Ottawa, pour les projets réalisés à Ottawa en 2017 pendant les célébrations du 150^e anniversaire du Canada.

Tous les partenaires ont hâte de recevoir les candidatures excitantes provenant des secteurs diversifiés et dynamiques des arts, de la culture et du patrimoine. L'espoir est de recevoir certaines activités intersectorielles (par exemple, une collaboration entre des professionnels en arts et des travailleurs du patrimoine), ainsi qu'une implication des jeunes et des groupes autochtones.

Ne manquez pas cette occasion de mettre en valeur les arts, la culture et le patrimoine d'Ottawa!

Programme Éclat 150

Ottawa 2017 a aussi lancé son programme de subvention Éclat 150. "Nous sommes à la recherche d'événements uniques, audacieux, spectaculaires et éphémères qui auront lieu dans des endroits surprenants et insolites à Ottawa en 2017. Montrez-nous ce que vous avez dans le ventre!"

Aperçu Du Programme

- un budget global de 250 000 $ est prévu
- la subvention minimale est de 5 000 $ et la subvention maximale est de 25 000 $ par projet
- les événements peuvent être payants, et les droits d'entrée vendus par l'entremise du réseau de distribution d'Ottawa 2017
- toutes les activités doivent avoir lieu dans la ville d'Ottawa et devraient mettre en valeur des endroits non traditionnels, renforçant ainsi l'élément de surprise pour les participants
- les événements devraient être clé en main et doivent avoir lieu entre le 1^{er} janvier 2017 et le 31 décembre 2017

- les projets devraient être audacieux, créatifs, innovants, attrayants et offrir aux participants une expérience émotionnelle unique

- Date limite pour les propositions:
le jeudi 28 avril 2016 à 16 h. (HNE)

Pour plus de renseignements :
